

Stefano Porro

CHIEF INSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS & EXTERNAL RELATIONS OFFICER

Stefano Porro is Chief Institutional Affairs & External Relations since 1 April 2024. Born in Milan, he graduated in Literature at the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore. Between 2005 and 2010 he was the Director for the Press sector, information, and communication of Campania region.

In the period between 2010 and 2013, with three different executive branches, he led the communications for the Ministry of Economic Development, and he took the same role for the Ministry of Infrastructures and Transportation. Between 2014 and 2016 he took the lead of the external relations for the listed multiutility Acea and prior to that the institutional affairs and the study office of Simest (CDP group). He entered in the Group at the beginning of 2016 in the role of Director of External Relations and Institutional Affairs of Aeroporti di Roma where he was part of the team that was responsible for transforming Fiumicino in the most appreciated European hub by passengers.

He held the same role in Autostrade per l'Italia since November 2018, leading the crisis management and the communication efforts of the motorway concession's new course. Journalist and essay author, he was also nominated "Cavaliere al Merito" of the Italian Republic in 2013.

In Mundys he was Director of External Relations & institutional Affairs of Mundys since 1 June 2021.

