Right to attend General Meetings and the exercise of voting rights

Only those persons may attend and vote at General Meetings who have been notified as having voting rights to the Company by an "intermediary" so authorised in accordance with applicable laws; such notification having been issued in accordance with records at the close of business on 12 February 2018, being the seventh stock exchange trading day preceding the date set for the General Meeting in single call (the "Record Date"), in conformity with articles 83-sexies of Legislative Decree 58 of 24 February 1998 (the "Consolidated Finance Act", or "CFA").

Any deposits in and withdrawals from custody accounts subsequent to the Record Date shall be without effect to a person's right to vote at the General Meeting. Persons who are, consequently, registered as having title to shares only subsequent to the Record Date shall have no right to attend or vote at the General Meeting.

Such notification by the intermediary must arrive no later than 16 February 2018, being the close of business of the third stock exchange trading day preceding the date set for the General Meeting in first call. The right to attend and vote at General Meeting, however, shall be valid to the extent that the relevant notice is received by the Company no later than the opening of the General Meeting.

Shareholders still in the possession of share certificates in scrip form are required to provide the intermediary with the share certificates for entry into the centralised scripless share certificate system and apply for the issuance of the above notification.

The Office of the Chairman will be open two hours prior to the time set for the General Meeting in order to identify attendees and verify their right to attend.

Proxies

All holders of rights to vote at and attend the General Meeting may appoint a representative through the issuance of a written proxy, subject to any legal and regulatory limitations. A Proxy Form that can be downloaded from the Company's website, <http://www.atlantia.it/en/investors/general-meetings.html>, and printed out may also be used.

Proxies so appointed may, instead of providing the original form, fax a copy to +39-06-45417450 or send an electronic version of the form by certified electronic mail to atlantia@pecserviziotitoli.it or upload the form to the relevant page of the Company's website (<http://www.atlantia.it/en/investors/general-meetings.html>), attesting and accepting personal liability for the conformity of the copy with the original and to the identity of the holder of voting rights. Proxies are under a statutory obligation to retain the original of the form and any voting instructions received for one year from the close of business at the General Meeting.

The Appointed Representative within the meaning of art. 135-undecies, Consolidated Finance Act

Subject to the above, the Company, as permitted by article 135-undecies of the Consolidated Finance Act, has appointed Computershare SpA, with registered office in Via Mascheroni 19, Milan, as the Appointed Representative, to which persons with voting rights may provide voting instructions on any and all agenda items by 19 February 2018, being the close of business on the second stock exchange trading day preceding the date set for the General Meeting.

The authorisation must be provided to the Appointed Representative according to the procedures and by using the relevant proxy form available on the Company's website at <http://www.atlantia.it/en/investors/general-meetings.html>.

The authorisation is without effect with respect to motions for which voting instructions have not been issued. Such authorisations and voting instructions may be revoked within the same terms and conditions applied to their conferment.

The holders of voting rights may submit questions on agenda items either before the General Meeting or up to three days prior to the Meeting held in single call, being 18 February 2018, and answers must be provided no later than the General Meeting.
