ATLANTIA: CEO CASTELLUCCI MANDATED TO INVESTIGATE ALITALIA BUSINESS PLAN

Rome, 11 July 2019 – With reference to the anticipations recently published by the press, Atlantia informs that today's meeting of the Board of Directors – in consideration of the interest of its subsidiary Aeroporti di Roma for a competitive flag carrier generating traffic for the Rome airport system - has mandated the CEO Giovanni Castellucci to investigate the sustainability and the effectiveness of the new Alitalia business plan - including the new shareholding structure and the management team – as well as the necessary measures for a lasting and effective re-launch of the airline. The CEO will report on this matter in a next Board meeting that will assess and take any relevant resolution.
