SALE OF 49,99% OF GRUPO COSTANERA TO CANADA PENSION PLAN INVESTMENT BOARD COMPLETED

Rome, 3 August 2012 – Atlantia announces that it has today completed the sale of 49.99% of Grupo Costanera to Canada Pension Plan Investment Board (CPPIB), in accordance with the agreements entered into on 19 April 2012. The total price amounts to 557bn Chilean pesos (equal to approximately €857m). The Atlantia Group (via Autostrade Sud America) continues to control 50.01% of Grupo Costanera, consolidating the group's results in its accounts. As a result of the transaction, the 50% stakes in Vespucio Sur and Litoral Central - now indirectly owned by Autostrade per l'Italia - will be transferred to Grupo Costanera.
