

Stefania Dotto

Ms Dotto has worked for Edizione since February 2023, managing a number of the company's equity stakes and investments.

She began her professional career at Deloitte, where she spent four years in the Audit department, before joining the Transaction Advisory Services practice at EY, where she advised corporate clients and financial investors on M&A transactions. She later joined the Investment teams of Edizione (2017 – 2020) and Mundys (2020 – 2023), working on a range of transactions, including mergers, demergers and the acquisition and disposal of investments.

She holds a Business Economics degree from the Ca' Foscari University in Venice and a specialist degree in Management from the Luigi Bocconi Commercial University in Milan.
